Redskin Attendants

Strut Your Stuff

David Arst, Joan Hammer, Mary Jane Comstock, and Dick Wells march in front of the Student Congress float for the North-East parade. The float, which represented a huge peacock won the first prize for beauty.

Clean-up

Max Armstrong, dressed as a street sweeper, cleans up, in preparation for the North-East game that night.

Cheer Leaders Float

Vocational Dance

Lettermen's Dance

The crowning of the Lettermen's Sweetheart was the highlight of the annual Lettermen's Dance. Receiving the honor is Joan Vosper, escorted by Jim Mayo. Jim Haught, president of the Lettermen's Club, crowned her while Tom Black presented her with a corsage. Looking on is Don Swearer, master of ceremonies.

Roman Banquet

Judy Phillips and Paul DeGood, in ancient Roman costume, lend to the traditional atmosphere at the Latin Club's Roman banquet.

Buford Crick, Ronny Williamson, Jim McKinney, Raymond West, and Dick Davis harmonize as a part of the entertaining floor show for the Lettermen's Dance. This was one of the more sophisticated numbers.

No...! No...!Brain WorkDinner Guests

Any one who bought "THE BIG STORY" this year had the privilege of voting for a boy and a girl to be BIG WHEELS in East High for a day.

When the sales campaign was over and the votes were all counted, Lola Guice and Cleo Littleton emerged victorious by a large margin.

School Is OverBefore The Date

It's Too Early

Rough Readin'

A Free Show

Pictures were taken of Lola and Cleo throughout the day so that "THE BIG STORY" readers would know just how a BIG WHEEL acts for a day.

A banquet at Steffen's Guest Room, a free ride to town, a free picture show, and two full pages in "THE BIG STORY" were their rewards for being BIG WHEELS for a day.

Sippin' Cokes

Sophomore Assembly

"Inside U. S. A." was the theme, and the audience was carried by train all over the United States to see our Sophomore talent. Here Judy Haigh and Donrad Stahl are demonstrating the art of jitterbugging.

Yearbook Assembly

Hillbillies Ed Freeburg, Don Dalrymple, and Ben Grisamore, sing a revised version of "The Thing" in the assembly sponsored by the Yearbook staff. A large replica of the Yearbook was used to show scenes similar to those appearing in "The Big Story."

Junior Assembly

Ronny Hershberger does an expert job of playing the accordion, for the Junior Assembly. The theme of "Out of this World" was used, and Olympian characters Jupiter, Juno, and Cupid helped to tie the entertaining plot together.

Senior Assembly

To all those known, and loved, and lost during this school year.

Who Love Can Never Die

*Who love can never die. They are a part
Of all that lives beneath the summer's sky;
With the world's living soul their souls are one:
Nor shall they in vast Nature be undone
And lost in the general life; each separate heart
Shall live, and find its own, and never die.*
